

“Leave Your Mark”

My Zen Cairn

About

Roberta Kung M.D.

Roberta Kung M.D. is the Founder CEO of GiftedTaste, a company whose mission is to bridge meaningful relationships in the communities we live, work, play, and create.

A practicing anesthesiologist and educator of mind-body medicine, Roberta curates, cultivates, and nurtures communities of like-minded women by guiding enlightening conversations that integrate the spiritual science of health & well-being and compelling content in the arts, culture, and cuisine with an understanding of their relevance in modern-day living.

Discover

Gifted Retreats

Bespoke virtual and in-person holistic wellness retreats in Los Angeles delivering well-curated experiences in the arts, culture and cuisine

Gifted Health

Virtual second opinions for complex medical issues or difficult treatment decisions related to digestive disorders and conditions specific to women's health and wellness

Gifted Luxury arriving in 2022

Medical, Wellness and Spiritual Tourism

Our Promise

At GiftedTaste, we believe in the power of the feminine collective to support all women who are committed to a healthier and more holistic path towards achieving greater success and fulfillment in their personal and professional lives.

Rock stacking has carried spiritual meaning across cultures for centuries. The act of balancing stones carries with it a practice of patience and a physical effort of creating balance. Each rock can signify an intention of grace for thankfulness, or offered up for another in need.

Leave Your Mark

“Whether through your actions or in your relationships, leave your mark on the landscape of others’ lives.”

“Let me show you the higher part of yourself when it becomes hidden from your view...”