

WWISDOM
SERIES

EPISODE 03

Speaking Up: Your Money Life at Work & at Home

Powered by
THE W SOURCE™

SHARON COX, CFP®
Money Coach
Founder, The Money Dance

WHY IS IT CRUCIAL FOR WOMEN TO SPEAK UP ABOUT MONEY?

WHEN WOMEN DON'T SPEAK UP ABOUT MONEY...

WHAT GETS IN THE WAY OF MONEY-TALK?

- Your Personal Narrative
- Work Culture
- Home Culture

SPEAK UP & BE AN EVEN BETTER BUSINESS WOMAN

- Research pay structure industry-wide, at comparable firms, and at your firm.
- Negotiate as though you were negotiating for a friend.
- Shine and participate at business meetings.
- Review and maximize retirement benefits.

SPEAKING UP & STRENGTHENING FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Model and teach responsible money management to children beginning at age 3!

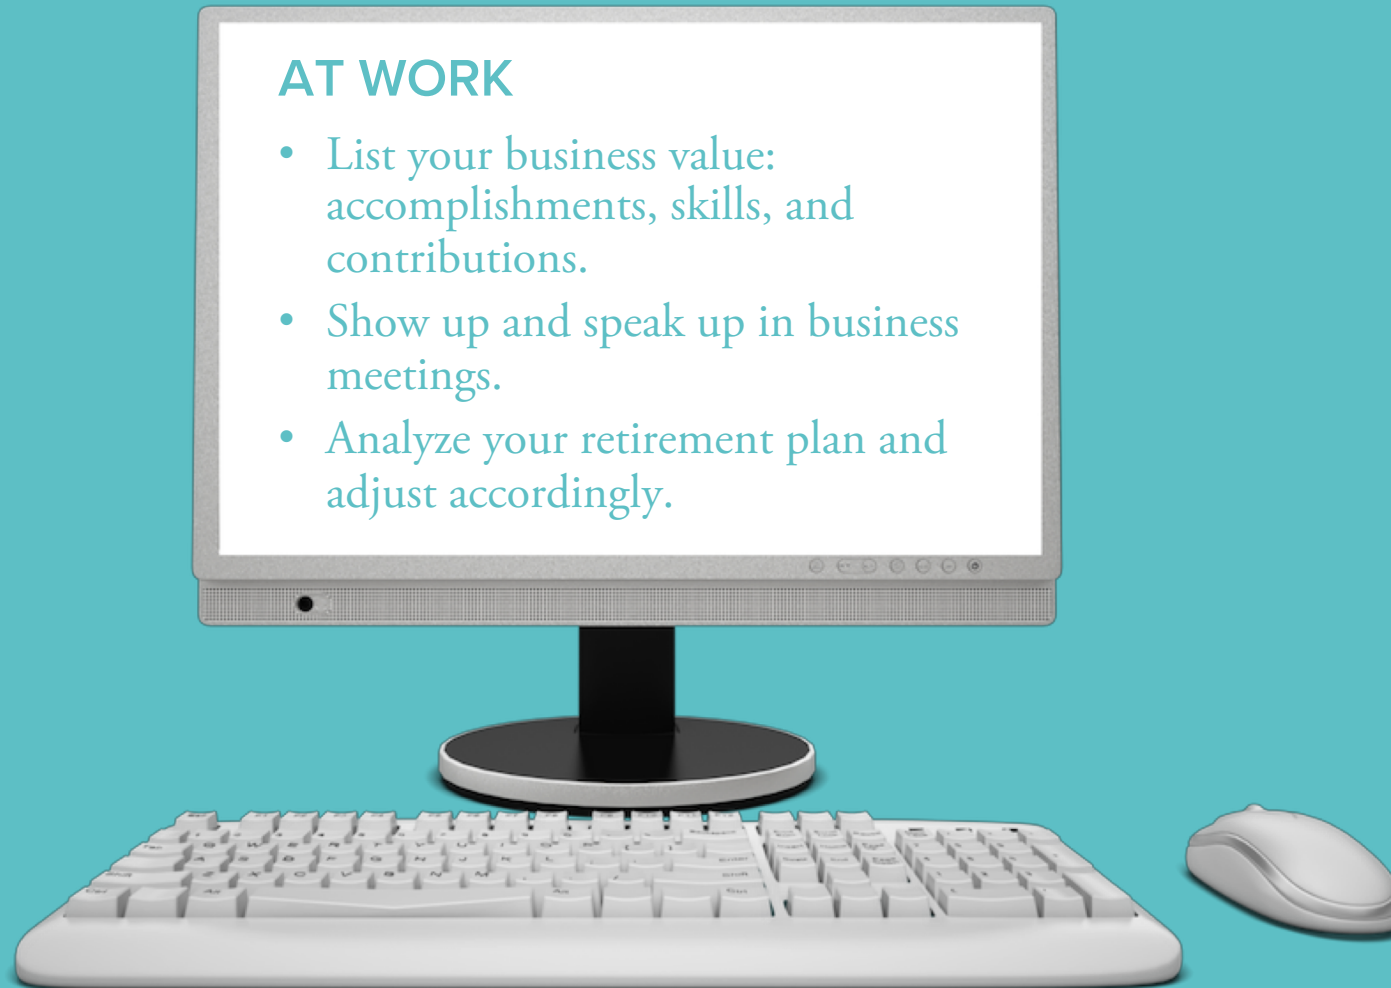

Couples who have frequent money conversations report happier relationships.

Anticipate how to manage caring for an elderly parent/family member while working.

SPEAKING UP REMINDERS

AT WORK

- List your business value: accomplishments, skills, and contributions.
- Show up and speak up in business meetings.
- Analyze your retirement plan and adjust accordingly.

SPEAKING UP REMINDERS

AT HOME

- List the financial topics you need to discuss with family. Include generations above and below.
- Prepare and schedule the discussion.
- Have the meeting and agree on the next step. (Build in accountability.)

the money dance

Sharon Cox
650.722.2791
sharon@themoneydance.com

money coaching for women

Now is the time to create money clarity, refine your money habits, and simplify your money life.

Sharon offers

Private Sessions

Personal, focused support for consistent results

Small Group Facilitation

You and your friends get real about money in a safe environment - also available with online groups

Interactive Workshops

Learning through collaboration moves us forward together

Speaking Engagements

Signature talks:

Speaking Up: Women and the Money Talk Taboo

Speaking Up: Money, Marriage and Minefields